EXTENSION AND OUTREACH PROGRAMMES CONDUCTED IN THE SESSION 2020 – 21

Due to the lockdown, it was not possible to conduct many extension and outreach programmes. However, the National Service Scheme conducted 3 programmes in the online mode.

1. National Youth Day on 12/01/2021 where a Special Lecture was presented by Dr. Debika Guha, Associate Professor, Department of Education, Loreto College, Kolkata. The lecture was attended by 70 students.
2. Thalassemia Awareness Programme on 24/03/2021 where Dr. Sandhya Rani Jana lectured 85 students.
3. Pledge against COVID – 19 was taken by the students on 08/10/2020.

Besides, the College took up the initiative of donating clothes to the residents of Majherdabari area in Alipurduar on 18/02/2021. Due to lockdown, students could not be involved in the activity while handing out the clothes. Staff of the college took up this honest initiative.

An Awareness Programme on Cancer Prevention and Healthy Lifestyle was jointly organized with NGO called Sanjivani, Life Beyond Cancer on 21/08/2020. The program organised online was attended by 100 students.

Distribution of Clothes at Jitpur Area.

Clothes donated by the students and teachers over the year in the 'Warmth' Clothes Bank of the College was distributed among villagers in the Jitpur Area of Alipurduar

Date: 04/03/2023

In order to encourage students to study, Academic Materials like exercise book, pencil, eraser and sharpener were distributed among the students at the Primary Level of Vidyasagar Vidyapith, Alipurduar Jn.

Date: 30/04/2023

Students conducted a survey in the villages of Andu and Kurmai in the Dakshin Barajhar Forest Region of Alipurduar District on 30/04/2023.

The survey aimed at determining the socio – economic and educational status of the villagers.

113 families of Andu village and roughly 56 families of Kurmai village were interviewed and their responses were noted down by the girls.

In order to encourage the children from these villages to attend school, teaching learning materials were also distributed among them.

23 girls participated in this activity.
