POLICY FOR AWARD OF FREESHIP

Freeship is a financial aid provided to students that remit the whole or half of the tuition fees of a particular Course of Study. It is granted to needy students. Students must abide by the eligibility rules and restrictions set forth by the College authority in order to apply for the freeship.

10% of the total enrolled students be awarded Freeship on the basis of the below mentioned criteria:

- i) Freeship be awarded once in a Financial Year.
- ii) Students belonging to the General Category be given preference while selecting students for award of Freeship.
- iii) Students who are not availing any other scholarship be given preference for award of Freeship.
- iv) It will be mandatory for the students to provide their family's Income Certificate while applying for the Freeship.
- v) Students should also provide a copy of their BPL Ration Card in order to be eligible for the Freeship.
- vi) The list of students selected for award of Freeship be approved by the Governing Body before the disbursement.
- vii) There will also be a provision for consideration of special cases with due approval from the Governing Body.
- viii) This policy document be made available in the college website.
